

STYROFOAM DANGERS AWARENESS SURVEY

This is a survey by the Art & Wilderness Institute's Green Masjid Initiative to assess the awareness of the community on the harmful impacts of Styrofoam to human health, marine life, and the environment.

1. Were you aware that it takes styrofoam over 500 YEARS to decompose?
 Yes
 No
2. Were you aware that Americans throw out 25 BILLION Styrofoam cups and take-out containers every year?
 Yes
 No
3. Did you know that Styrofoam contains styrene, a chemical that harms the reproductive system, is carcinogenic, and can cause irritation of the eyes, skin, upper respiratory tract and GI tract?
 Yes
 No
4. On a scale of 1-5, how strongly do you feel it is our responsibility not only as Muslims, but as human beings to take action to protect our environment?
 1 (Least Strongly)
 2
 3
 4
 5 (Most Strongly)
5. On a scale of 1-5, how motivated are you to make small changes in your personal life to protect our environment?
 1 (Least Strongly)
 2
 3
 4
 5 (Most Strongly)
6. How can we support your journey to adopt greener practices at your masjid/organization?
7. Please share any other comments/suggestions/feedback to help our community make a change that is better for the environment in accordance with our duty as a muslim to be a khalifa of this earth by taking care of all of Allah's creation and safeguarding our Earth for all of our future generations.